South-Carolina GAZETTE.

From THURSDAY November 13th, to THURSDAY November 20th, 1755.

CHARLES-TOWN, November 20.

ON Saturday arrived here, under Convoy of His Majesty's Ship Syren, Charles Proby, Esq; Commander, from the Bay of Funal in Nova Scotia, a Ship, a Brigantine, and a Sloop, having on board 401 of the Neutral French, viz. the Ship 210, the Brigantine 137, and the Sloop 124; and we hear, that several Children have been born in the Passage, on board each Vessel.

The same Day passed by this Bar, His Majesty's Ship Syren, having still under Convoy one Ship with Neutral French for Georgia, which she is gone to see safe in there.

On Monday last a Proclamation was issued, calling the General Assembly of this Province (which stood adjourned 'till the Second Tuesday in December next) to meet on this Day.

A Snow from Jamaica for Liverpool, hath been upwards of a Fortnight on this Coast, intending to have put in here; but, having left her Rudder a few Days ago, with some Assistance from Capt. Hood, she is gone for one of our Southern Inlets.

Yesterday died, the Honourable Andrew Rutledge, Esq; a Gentleman eminent for his Qualifications in the Practice of the Law, a benevolent and good Man, and who has several Times been chosen Speaker of the House of Assembly of this Province, where he always discharged his Trust with Honour: Hence, it cannot be doubted, that he was universally esteemed, and is universally lamented.

The same Day fell down into Rebellion Road, in order to go on a Cruize against the French, His Majesty's Snow Jamaica, commanded by Samuel Hood, Esq. Capt. Hood advertises, that such able Seamen as will join in it on board the said Snow, may (if they desire it) be discharged at the End of her Cruize.

The same Day arrived here, another Sloop with (127) Neutral French from Nova Scotia, but last from Boston; by which we have the following fresh Advices, viz.

Boston, November 3. Monday last arrived here from Plymouth, his majesty's ship Seaford, Capt. Rawling, with dispatches for the several governments on this continent, and about 15 000 pounds sterling in cash, for the payment of the troops in his majesty's service in these parts; and, as we hear, a commission from his majesty to his excellency general shirley, appointing him commander in chief of all the land forces in his majesty's service in North America. Several officers for his majesty's troops came passengers in the Seaford. She took 2 French prizes in her passage hither, and brought in 14 of their men, who are disposed of in this town. The Other sloop of war came out with the Seaford, bound to Halifax, who, 'tis said, had taken one or two prizes. 'Tis said the Seaford was in sight of admiral Hawke's squadron, and spoke with the Newcastle man of war, which informed, that the fleet had taken and sent in near 40 prizes, and on their cruize had looked into Brest, Rochfort, and all the principal French ports, but could discern no great appearance of a naval armament.

Capt. Kirkwood, who arrived here last monday from London, informs, that off the Western-Islands he was brought too by 2 French men of war, who, after asking him many questions, permitted him to proceed on his voyage.

We learn by Capt. Bethune, that his majesty was returned to his British dominions from Hanover, and landed at Deal the 16th of September. It was reported, that one of his majesty's ships of 20 guns, which had a new governor for South-Carolina on board, was taken by the French.

By the public papers, private letters, and oral informations, we have reason to believe, that upwards of an hundred French vessels had been taken when Capt. Bethune left England.

By vessels from Chigrecto in Nova Scotia we are informed, that some thousands of the French inhabitants have been shipped off for our Southern colonies; that about 5000 more were at Annapolis, and were shipped as fast as vessels could be procured for transporting them.

By letters from Halifax dated October 21st, we are informed, that the night before the fleet sailed for England, a most horrid scheme was discovered, that had been laid by some of the principal French officers, with a plan of the town and batteries, and was done on exceeding thin paper, and extreme fine writing, and was folded and pressed as close as possible, and put in the middle of a wash-ball to go to Canada by the way of Louisbourg. It was to take Halifax this winter, with a number of Canadians, Indians and regulars, and when they had taken the town, they were to fire the batteries upon the ships; the inhabitants all to be shut up in the church, and fire put to it, and the troops all to be put to the sword without quarter. The admiral put it to the chief person concerned, (viz. the captain of the Alcide), who flatly denied it; upon which the admiral shewed it to him in his own hand writing, to his horrible confusion.
